

6 1009 METERS, THE ROOF OF BEAUJOLAIS

CHANGING BEAUJOLAIS' COLOUR TO GREEN...

MORNING

Along the route of the Azergues river valley, admire the fortress that dominates the village of Châtillon d'Azergues. Climb up to the old village of Ternand, a fortified medieval village built on a promontory and as you wander through the paved streets you will be plunged into another time. Wander through the countryside, right up to the «Col des Echarmeaux», a great breath of fresh air between the flat areas of the vineyards and the forests: On the right at Chambost-Allières, direction the forest of Cantinière for a walk on the experience trail, for a 3.5km fun and artistic course. Take a break, playing or go fishing at the leisure park at Azole in Propières.

AFTERNOON

Hike up to the Mont Saint Rigaud where you will discover a water source: the legend is that it has miraculous virtues! Then climb up to the observation tower that dominates all of southern Burgundy. A must see! A Totem sculpted on a local pine tree at the mountain pass of the «Col du Crie».

Return to Beaujeu, the historical capital of Beaujolais, to visit the Maison du terroir beaujolais, where your 5 senses will be awoken due to the permanent exhibit on gastronomy or rent a bicycle.

Visit the unusual interior of Saint Nicolas church, closely linked to the history of the Lords of Beaujeu.

End your journey by discovering the Geoscope at Mont Brouilly, which will unveil numerous geological mysteries of the Beaujolais. Drop by the Chapel «Notre Dame du raisin» at the top and soak in the views of the Saône valley.
